ASCP-NCOA Companion Falls Program

Speakers: Alice Bell, PT, DPT, GCS, Senior Payment Specialist, American Physical Therapy Association; Kathleen A. Cameron, BS, MPH, Senior Director, National Council on Aging; Michelle A. Fritsch, PharmD, BCGP, BCACP, Founder & President, Meds MASH, LLC; Jacqueline Wilson, MS, OTR/L, Clinical Assistant Professor, Towson University

Pharmacists play a key role in mitigating a medication's impact on falls risk. Learn how to integrate falls prevention risk assessment and intervention into your practice. Attendees will be provided with the new ASCP/National Council on Aging Pharmacist Falls Risk Reduction Toolkit, a complement to the CDC's STEADI Initiative for Health Care Providers. Before the live program, it is highly recommended that attendees listen to the following two webinars that provide needed background on falls among older adults, national and state falls prevention efforts, medical conditions, medications as a risk factor for falls, and toolkit components:

- National and State Efforts to Reduce Falls Among Older Adults
- A Collaborative Approach to Falls PreventionL Introduction to the ASCP-NCOA Toolkit

Learning Objectives:

1. Define the role of comprehensive falls risk assessment and intervention in your practice utilizing CDC's STEADI and ASCP/NCOA's Pharmacist Tool Kits.
2. Identify common falls risk factors and potential pharmacist recommendations through review and discussion of three older adult case studies.
3. Discuss the important role of other disciplines in a multifactorial approach to falls prevention and name three potential collaborative partners you will contact to enhance your falls prevention services after the workshop/session.
4. Identify three next steps to incorporate falls risk assessment and intervention into your practice.
